John K. Steinbaugh, Jackson S. Moore, W. B. Levy, and J. Parke Montague.

Los Fiestadores Club
Inducts New Officers

Los Fiestadores Club members gathered Friday evening in Alondra Park Country Club for a most enjoyable dinner dance. The occasion marked the installation of John K. Steinbaugh, president, and his staff who will serve during the ensuing year. Presentation of the gavel was made by W. R. Patterson, retiring president.

Those who will serve on Mr. Steinbaugh's board next year include Messrs. and Mmes. J. Parke Montague, W. B. Levy, Jackson S. Moore and R. D. Bolen.

The club's press book was presented to the new president by Mrs. Lee A. McCoy, who served as publicity chairman during the past year.

Colorful spring flowers decorated the tables, set for 33 couples.

Serving as hosts for the special occasion were Messrs. and Mesdames R. B. Trezise, William Walsmith and E. V. Winkelbauer.

As the couples arrived, the ladies were presented with wrist corsages and the gentlemen received carnation boutonnieres.

Music for dancing was provided by the popular Les Tronier and his orchestra.

Several informal parties will be held during the summer, but the club calendar for 1951-52 will begin late in September, according to Mrs. McCoy.

Memorial
Service
Marks Meet

Royal Matron Maybelle Spencer, and Royal Patron Eugene Spencer presided at the stated meeting and memorial service of Lomita Court, Order of Amaranth, Thursday evening at Torrance Masonic Temple. The meeting was well attended and many visitors were present from Redondo Beach, Maywood, Moneta, Los Angeles, and Blythe.

Grand officers Mabel Holmes, assistant grand lecturer; and Sally Weber, grand representative to Australia, were present and extended grand honors. The first Walter Cosby Crescent, Royal Matron Ruth Muir of Maywood, ever to visit Lomita Court, was welcomed. The surprise of the evening was the presence of a former Lomita resident, Jewel Fredericks, who now resides in Blythe. Also present was Ruby Sharon of Redondo, who has been ill for some time. Both are past royal matrons.

Estelle des Jardins, as chairman of the evening, and her committee served to refreshments in the banquet room at tables artistically decorated with greenery and red geraniums.

All members of the order are invited to visit Lomita Court's next meeting which will be held June 14. This will be the official visit of the assistant grand lecturer.

Stork Shower
Given for Young Matron

Mrs. Adrian Watling was honored at an enjoyable shower arranged recently in the Gramercy avenue home of Mrs. Harry B. Oliver.

Beautiful gifts were presented at a table decorated in yellow crepe paper and adorned with blue bows. A large stork figurine completed the table decor.

Game prizes were presented to Mmes. Roy Wheeler, J. R. Richhart and Fred Reinhardt.

Boote-decorated individual ice cream cakes were served and favors were tiny blue baby buggies.

Guests were Mmes. Pete Bucan and Dewey Meredith of Walnut Creek, and Mmes. Lee Allen, Raymond Anderson, Jack Bell, Irving Caulkins, Parker Faupé, Charles Planary, Ernie Nystul, Bud Reed, Fred Reinhardt, R. J. Richhart and Ray White.

Honor Given
White Shrine
Priestess

Home coming for the Worthy High Priestess of Messiah Shrine, of the Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, Lois Babcock, from Supreme Shrine, held in St. Louis, Missouri, took place last Monday evening, in Redondo Masonic Temple.

The annual memorial service for departed members of the Shrine, was held and resolutions of respect were forwarded to the respective families.

After close of Shrine, all were seated in the banquet room beautifully decorated in keeping with the home-coming theme, by Eva Mae Arnold, and her committee. The Worthy High Priestess gave a reumorse of her trip to St. Louis, and her husband, Glenn told his activities while she was gone.

Next regular meeting of the Shrine, will be held on Monday, June 4, when members from all over the state will gather to pay homage to the elective officers of the Shrine.

Paper Drive
Planned by Perry PTA

Perry PTA's last project for this semester is a paper drive to be held June 4, 5 and 6 with proceeds to be used to purchase banners for the Girl Scout troops they sponsor. Persons not having a place to store newspapers are asked to take them to the following storing places:

Mrs. W. A. Wright, 18328 Roslin avenue, Mrs. George Simonson 18328 Burin street, Mrs. C. L. Thompson 4323 170th street.

Trios Hold
Memorial
Service

Trio Rebekahs observed courtesy night last Wednesday with the Noble Grand, Mrs. Amy Savage, presiding. Reports from the Rebekah Assembly held in Santa Cruz featured the session. Importance of Rebekah Lodges assisting Odd Fellow Lodges in gaining new members was stressed, as were other means of building up their lodges. Glowing reports were made concerning the Home at Gilroy and also the home for the aged at Syracuse.

During a Memorial program held for deceased members, Mrs. Jean Carlson sang, "In the Garden" as the officers, attired in white, marched to the cross carrying bouquets of sweet peas, followed by the members who also held sweet peas in memory of loved ones.

The social hour was supervised by Mrs. Erma Powers.

It is impossible to mentally or socially enslave a Bible-reading people. The principles of the Bible are the groundwork of human freedom.
